

El Paso Christians and churches support KLOVE; it publicizes local events and provides free air time for local nonprofit community events. There is some apprehension over displacing KLOVE with an LPFM that would not provide the same level of quality programming. My family and friends listen to KLOVE and do not want it replaced.